Barry Denyer-Green

Called 1972

Hon RICS

Barry's practice concerns agricultural holdings, compulsory purchase and compensation, landlord and tenant, easements and restrictive covenants, rights of way and highway law, commons and village greens. Arbitration work is an important element in his practice.

Called to the Bar 1972, Middle Temple. Until the recent conferment of HonRICS, Barry was a Fellow of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors. He is an Hon member of the Central Association of Agricultural Valuers, and a Fellow of the College of Estate Management.

He was editor of the Estates Gazette Law Reports 1987-2006 and joint editor of the Planning Law Reports 1986-2006.

His publications include Compulsory Purchase and Compensation (11th Edition) 2018 (also available in a Kindle version); Development Law and Planning (4th Edition) (2012); Law of Commons and of Town and Village Greens (2nd Edition) (2006) (Joint author); Atkins Court Forms, Compulsory Acquisition 2013; and contributions to Halsburys Laws of England and the Encyclopedia of Forms and Precedents.

He is a past chairman of the Compulsory Purchase Association and is a member of its national committee.

Education

- LLM (Lond)(1978)
- PhD (Lond)(1987)

Professional

- Hon RICS
- Called to the Bar 1972, Middle Temple
- Member of the Department of the Environment, Transport and the Regions Working Party on compulsory purchase, which resulted in the publication of a report in July 2000 "Fundamental review of the laws and procedures relating to compulsory purchase and compensation".
- Elected Honorary Member of the Central Association of Agricultural Valuers.

Publications

- Compulsory Purchase and Compensation (11th Ed. November 2018)
- Atkins Forms: Compulsory Acquisition (2013) published by Lexis Nexis
- Development and Planning Law (joint author) (4th Ed. 2012)
- The Law of Commons and Town and Village Greens. 2nd ed (2006)
- Halsburys Laws of England, Vol 27 on Landlord and Tenant (contributor with others) (1994) published by Butterworths.
- Encyclopaedia of Forms and Precedents, Vol 16(1), Fences, Boundaries and Party walls (5th Edition, Vol 1995 Reissue); Published by Butterworths
- Past Editor of Estates Gazette Law Reports
- Past Joint Editor Planning Law Reports.
