

Elizabeth Fitzgerald

Called 2001

I have been a member of Falcon Chambers since 2002.

I specialise in commercial property litigation and disputes relating to development land, but my expertise extends to all aspects of real property law and landlord and tenant law.

I frequently act for parties challenging arbitral awards award under sections 68 and 69 of the Arbitration Act 1996 and I am regularly instructed to advise arbitrators as legal assessor.

I have been appointed as arbitrator in a number of rent review and development land disputes. I have also lectured and acted for parties on a range of matters concerning in Pubs Code arbitrations.

Education

- St. Edwards College, Liverpool. Boraston Scholar
- Kings College, London. LLB (Hons) - First Class.

Professional

- Elected as Governing Bencher of Inner Temple
- Inns of Court School of Law - Very Competent
- Inner Temple BVC Scholarship
- Represented the Inner Temple at Princeton University Debating Competition 2001
- Member of the Chancery Bar Association, the Property Bar Association and the London Commercial Law and Commercial Bar Association.

Publications

- Co-Author of Commercial and Residential Service Charges (2013) Bloomsbury
 - Contributor to New Law Journal.
-