Jonathan Gaunt KC

Called 1972
Silk 1991

Deputy High Court Judge

- I am quite an experienced arbitrator.
- I have been appointed and conducted arbitrations which involved in person hearings over a week long in at least 5 property related arbitrations and have conducted at least a dozen on paper arbitrations.
- I cannot give details of the parties because they are confidential.
- I have also assisted arbitrators as a legal accessor in a number of cases going back to the 1990's. My advice was upheld by the High Court in Land Securities v Westminster City Council (NO2) [1995] 1 EGLR 245.
- I also sat as a deputy judge in the Chancery Division from 2002 to 2007.

Education

University College Oxford where he read classics (Mods and Greats)

Professional

- Called 1972, Lincoln's Inn (Mansfield Scholarship)
- Took Silk in 1991
- Bencher of Lincolns' Inn, Deputy High Court Judge
- Past Chairman of the Property Bar Association

Publications

- He was one of the editors of the Landlord and Tenant Volume of Halsbury's Laws of England (Vol 27), having re-written the sections on repairing covenants, rent and rent review for the 1994 Re-Issue.
- Joint editor of the 19th Edition of Gale on Easements (2012).
