MCI Arb

Jonathan Small QC has a wide ranging property-related practice; he often acts as legal assessor in disputes and he is happy to accept instructions as an arbitrator or expert to resolve property-related disputes.

The main emphasis of Jonathan's practice is on developer-led work such as sale and purchase disputes, overage, restrictive covenants and rights of way facilitating development. In addition to mainstream real property work, Jonathan also enjoys niche practices in telecoms work, Commonwealth work and professional negligence disputes.

He is a frequent contributor of articles in the Estates Gazette and the In-House Lawyer.
